

Fiberglass Winter Stockwater Tank

The Ruby Valley Conservation District, through the use of NRCS EQIP funding, built a fiberglass winter stockwater tank for a private landowner. The tank is insulated with dirt and straw surrounded by a lumber frame.

